

JFK Tells Aide To Seek Talks for Disarming

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy gave final instructions today to his top disarmament adviser today for a new round of negotiations with the Soviet Union on settling a new international disarmament conference this summer.

The President was understood to have told disarmament chief John J. McCloy that he should make every possible effort in talks beginning at Moscow Monday to work out arrangements, including details of time, place and the nations which would be invited to attend.

Kennedy's meeting with McCloy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk was one of two major foreign policy sessions on his calendar today. The other was a late-afternoon meeting of the National Security Council reportedly called to discuss West Berlin, Rusk and other policy makers were summoned to the NSC session.

The last such meeting on Berlin came two weeks ago. At that time Kennedy assigned to Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and other administration executives various aspects of the Berlin crisis. They were told to come up with plans and recommendations for meeting the Soviet challenge.

The steps under consideration include possible reinforcement of the five U.S. divisions in Europe, calling up of National Guard and reserve units, and the declaration of a national emergency to increase presidential powers.

15 Trying for Title of Miss USA

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Fifteen girls ranging from 34-22-35 to 37-24-36, and from student to real estate speculator, compete tonight for the title Miss USA.

They are the girls who survived the first round of judging at the Miss Universe beauty pageant. Twenty-eight others seeking the Miss USA title were eliminated Wednesday night.

The judges hit a snag at the end. They had four places left to fill and six girls to fill them: Miss Indiana, Miss Kentucky, Miss Michigan, Miss New Jersey, Miss Texas and Miss West Virginia.

After a tense five minutes of balloting, Miss Indiana and Miss Texas were eliminated.

"I'm the shortest (5-foot-3) girl in the contest. I never thought they'd pick me," said Miss West Virginia, 20-year-old Kathy McManaway of Princeton. "I thought they wanted only beautiful, long-legged girls."

Kathy, a college junior, also has the most modest dimensions, along with Miss Michigan, who is Patricia Lyn Squires, a 19-year-old nursing student from Milan.

The Miss Universe competition will be held this year on Friday and Saturday nights.

Marlene Britsch, 21, of Claremont Harbor, Miss., moved to Mississippi from New Orleans last year and started a real estate business.

Tax Revenue Up By $700,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A boost of about $700,000 in tax revenues is seen in figures disclosing an expected $270 million assessed valuation of utilities and public carriers in Arkansas this year.

The figures were revealed Wednesday by Earl Berry, director of the Tax Division of the Arkansas Public Service Commission.

Berry said the $270 million evaluation would be $14 more than last year.

Thinks Spirit May Live in Another

by JERRY BUCK

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)—Are there persons living today who lived "another life" in another body — perhaps in some bygone century?

An eminent University of Virginia psychiatrist isn't sure, but he says he has found enough evidence in a 10-year study to warrant further investigation.

For additional proof he is leaving Saturday for India and Ceylon, where several children claim to have memories of another life.

The doctor, Ian Stevenson, is professor of neurology and psychiatry and chairman of that department at the university's School of Medicine. He will work under a grant from the Parapsychology Foundation in New York.

He says succinctly, "There is some evidence that part of the human organism survives physical death." He says he is not referring to any organic part of the body, but "to what was called the soul in the 19th century."

Speaking of case studies of children who claim to have lived before, Dr. Stevenson says, "Apparent memories of this kind are fragmentary, and usually fade as the children get older. Such children usually remember from a dozen to 20 items, and these are usually scenes of strong emotional significance, such as the death of a mother or father."

Dr. Stevenson said he hopes to release a full report within a year on one such case—this one involving a woman in Philadelphia.

He said that under hypnosis the woman undergoes a personality change and switches from English to an early form of Swedish dialect. Out of hypnosis, she speaks no Swedish at all and has no apparent connection with such a background.

If this sounds much like the famous case of the Pueblo, Colo., housewife who believed she was Bridget Murphy in 19th century Ireland, Dr. Stevenson isn't worried. He believes in the evidence produced in that study, but adds it is not one of the best examples.

Dr. Stevenson said he is going to India for a seven-week visit because cases suggesting a previous existence are more prevalent there than in Europe or America. He said that perhaps the Buddhist and Hindu beliefs in reincarnation provide a favorable climate for stories of this kind.

Plane Fall Kills Man and Son

DUMAS, Ark. (AP)—A small plane authorities said was trying to land on an unlighted landing strip crashed at nearly Pickens Wednesday night, killing 30-year-old Tommy Denton of Dumas and his 5-year-old son, Mike.

The two were returning from Warren where the boy had been visiting his grandparents, officers said. There was no one else aboard the plane.

The plane smashed into a ditch near the end of the runway but did not burn.

GOPs Study Foreign Plan Manifesto

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republicans are sounding out opinion among themselves in preparation for the issuance of a broad manifesto on foreign policy.

If it materializes, the statement is expected to express a Republican position on the problems arising from all of the critical trouble spots in the world, specifically including Berlin and Cuba.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in an interview he will ask for a party conference within the next two or three weeks to begin work on a preliminary draft.

"We want to wait a while for some of these situations to jell a bit, particularly that in Berlin," Dirksen said. "But there is the general feeling that the time has about arrived when the Republicans should make their position clear in the light of recent developments."

Dirksen said that if an agreement can be reached on its terms, the statement in effect would bring up to date the foreign policy declarations made in the Republican platform a year ago.

The platform dealt largely in foreign policy generalities. It said that American "determination to stand fast has forestalled aggression before Berlin, the Formosa Straits and Lebanon." It was written at a time when the controversy over Berlin was relatively quiet and long before the Cuban situation became critical because of the ill-fated invasion.

It made no direct mention of the ill-fated Cuban invasion. Dirksen emphasized that the manifesto will represent only the thinking of the Senate Republicans. He said he knows of no current move among GOP House members to issue any similar statement.

However, Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said in a separate interview he hopes any such declaration of principles would be followed later by partywide action of the same nature.

Javits said he has discussed with some of his colleagues the possibility that a party conference patterned after the 1943 Mackinac Island, Mich., meeting might be arranged. At that conference the late Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan led Republicans to an agreement on a broad statement of foreign policy emphasizing the party's break with isolationism.

Presumably any such meeting would include senators, House members, governors, national committeemen and state chairmen to provide a broad base of party support for any declaration that might be forthcoming.

Chairman John M. Bailey of the Democratic National Committee called for a constitutional amendment to prevent electors from deserting the candidate to whom they are pledged.

Chairman William E. Miller of the Republican National Committee urged the adoption of a plan by which electors would be chosen by congressional districts, with two being named at-large in each state.

The two chairmen reached one major point of agreement in separate testimony prepared for the Senate Constitutional Amendment Subcommittee.

Both proposed that when no candidate gets a majority of electoral votes and the election has to be decided in Congress that all members of the Senate and the House be permitted to vote. Such contests now are settled in the House, with each state delegation having one vote.

Official Admits Taking Funds

HELENA, Ark. (AP)—The prosecuting attorney's office is studying an audit which disclosed that public funds had been diverted in the Phillips County circuit clerk's office.

Circuit Clerk Hugh Tardy said Wednesday he would resign the post he has held since 1957 because "I feel I have betrayed the confidence and trust that people placed in me."

The money, reported to be $5,000, was diverted to another use but not for personal benefit, Tardy said.

The shortage was turned up in an audit by the public accountant firm of Reynolds, Bone and Griesbeck, which had been hired to set up better accounting procedures for county offices. The firm was employed through a County Audit Advisory Committee formed after a move to obtain a separate county audit.

Limit welfare recipients, except for the aged, blind and disabled, to three months of assistance in any one year.

Newburgh officials estimated about 5 per cent of the city's 31,000 population is on relief. They contended taxpayers no longer can afford the mounting costs. And City Manager Joseph Mitchell asserted:

"There is a crying need for a reappraisal of the role of welfare in our society."

It's a big subject. The unemployed now number 5.6 million. Individuals on general relief rolls total about 1.5 million. Automation is causing concern about the future.

An Associated Press survey today showed that work-for-hour-relief programs are becoming widespread but they are far from general in scope. One theory behind them is that a man who has to work for a relief check will look for a better job.

A work policy has been in effect since 1958 in Phillipsburg, N.J. Mayor Arthur W. Paine said every able-bodied man applying for relief is put to work in parks or on roads for $1.50 an hour. He figured the plan has cut welfare costs from about $50,000 a year to around $20,000 last year.

"If this system were employed all over, it would save billions of taxpayers' dollars," he said.

How do reliefers react? A woman recipient went on duty in a library as part of a work relief program set up this year by the Washington State Legislature. She liked it well enough to work longer than necessary to earn her monthly benefits.

The Washington Department of Public Assistance mentioned that

Teacher to Tell Lions of Travels

A young teacher in the Los Angeles, Calif., public schools, a former airlines stewardess, will talk to the Lions club Monday night about her around-the-world travels, according to Arthur Wimmell who will be in charge of the program.

Miss Patricia Wagner, who is spending several weeks this summer visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wagner of McCaskill, recently took a leave of absence from her school work for a leisurely six month's trip around the world. She had previously traveled in Europe and last summer she spent three months in Alaska doing night club entertainment. She is a member of a girls' trip widely known in TV viewers in California as "The Three Kittens."

Miss Wagner's parents recently moved to Arkansas after spending most of their lives in South Dakota.

Two Local Persons Hurt in Wreck

Two local persons were painfully injured late yesterday when he auto in which they were riding returned three times on Highway 4 east of here.

Mrs. Paula Dupree, KXAR employee, suffered six broken ribs and bruises. Driver of the car, Jerry Rinehart, barber at Keith's shop, sustained a neck injury, a broken thumb and cuts and bruises. Although painful neither are considered in critical condition.

According to Investigating State Trooper Dwight Pankey, the local car was attempting to pass another, hit the shoulder of the road, went out of control and rolled over three times. Both Mrs. Dupree and Mr. Rinehart were thrown from the vehicle. Occupant of a nearby house brought them to a local hospital where they are still under treatment.

The car, a 1955 Chevrolet, was demolished.

Says Refugees Affirm Pressure in E. Germany

BERLIN (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said today the heavy flow of refugees into West Berlin indicates the Communist East German regime was stepping up pressure on its citizens.

"The refugee situation proves that conditions over there have become unbearable," the West German leader told a news conference. "A panic seems to have broken out."

Refugees now cross easily from East Berlin to West Berlin and are flown to West Germany. Soviet threats to hand over more authority to East Germany have encouraged the Red regime there to demand control over air corridors to West Berlin. This would close the refugee escape hatch. West Berlin is 100 miles inside East Germany.

Within East Germany the tension over Berlin has brought a stepped-up campaign to make people support communism more actively. Party members are urged to do more grass-roots organization work.

These organizing efforts, plus food shortages of such staples as potatoes and butter appear to be major causes for refugee flight.

The Communists imposed new controls in East Berlin again today to stop the drain on their sagging economy. West Berliners hereafter can obtain services in East Berlin only by changing their marks on a one-for-one basis. A Western mark is worth 4.62 East marks in West Berlin. West Berliners have been taking advantage of the cheap East German money by getting haircuts, laundry service and the like in East Berlin.

Adenauer held the news conference at the close of a two-day stay in Berlin his first visit to the isolated city in 14 months. He then flew through rainy weather back to Bonn in a U.S. Air Force plane.

West German planes are not permitted in the corridors over East Germany.

Adenauer rejected direct negotiation between West Germany and Communist East Germany, as urged by Soviet Premier Khrushchev. He also turned down again West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt's suggestion for a 52-nation conference on Germany, made up of Germany's wartime enemies.

The chancellor said again that a German settlement must be based on self-determination of the entire German people.

He complimented Secretary of State Dean Rusk for setting "a pattern of restraint" in the Berlin negotiations.

Minister Heaps Abuse on South

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—An Episcopal minister, just returned Wednesday night from Mississippi where he spent 23 days in jail as a "Freedom Rider," told a reporter, in answer to a question, that he did not consider Southerners "model Americans."

The Rev. Grant Muse, white pastor of the Church of the God Shepherd in Berkeley, told newsmen he and other Freedom Riders were abused and ridiculed by their Mississippi jailers.

A San Francisco reporter asked: "Do you think Southerners are un-American and un-Christian?"

"No, I don't think they are," the Rev. Muse replied.

Then he was asked: "Do you consider the Southerners model Americans?"

"No," he said.

He Would Hate to Be a Mother

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—I'd hate to be a mother.

When your hard-up neighbor down the street wins $356 on a daily double racetrack bet, he is hard enough to live with.

In one afternoon he has gone from the poor mouth to the rich mouth.

The morning found him reluctant to recognize his own virtue. The evening finds him unable to resist the temptation to denounce his government—dispraise his taxes. The money he has won has made him an authority on everything.

I'd hate to be a mother because she is like the gambler who won a daily double. It changes her whole outlook, too.

She gambled on a small investment and her reward as a winner is a moist bundle of maybe 7 pounds or so of crying human protoplasm. It is wet at both ends and dry probably only in the middle. And it stays that way month after month.

Life is full of laughter, but for some mystic reason no baby is ever born smiling. They all enter this world struggling in anger and fear and hunger. Too many leave the same way.

I'd hate to be a mother. The year before she became a parent she is eager to discuss such intellectual questions as whether the earth would be better if Picasso had got stuck in his blue rather than his pink mood, or if Dr. Albert Schweitzer and Tennessee Williams could shake hands across the distance.

But the day after she becomes a mother she becomes a tigress. A hundred thousand or more infants may be born on a single day, but her world is instantly concentrated to the squirming kingdom of newness.

Day after day she reduces herself (by enlargement) trying to make this dewy glob into a person. She has to curb its normal, strident, glutinous, wide-mouthed appetite for self-indulgence into discipline and acceptance of the aims and rights of others. She has to escort it sensibly and sensitively from yearning to learning to earning.

It is a hard and always difficult and often lonely and sometimes heart-breaking task.

The reward: If she does a good job—and microbes or war don't ruin her effort—the darn thing goes off on its own, leaving her to start its own family. If she does a bad job, it complains with the breath she gave it to object against the life she conferred.

I'd hate to be a mother. The job has so much responsibility.

Perhaps that is why women make the best mothers. They are much better gamblers than men.

Men bet themselves against now, and not always willingly. But most women are eager to stake themselves against eternity, gambling on a finer issue.

Motherhood is for the birds—or women with feathers of hope in their soul.

Italy Rails Attacked by Terrorists

By EUGENE LEVIN

ROME (AP)—Special guards patrolled Italy's international railway lines today against new attacks by terrorists from South Tyrol after a series of crippling blasts prompted Rome to accuse Austria of inciting violence.

The aroused Italian government tightened its watch on travel across the Austrian frontier and announced it would protest to Austria against Tuesday's bombings which tied up four major railways for hours.

Patrols with trained dogs moved along the railway tracks on the lookout for new attacks. They also sought clues to the authors of Tuesday's dynamitings, which occurred far from the disputed South Tyrol in a blow aimed at Italy's $600 million tourist trade.

Guards were posted at the Austrian Embassy in Rome and consulates in other Italian cities but there were no demonstrations.

Premier Amintore Fanfani's government announced that both Italians and Austrians entering Italy from Austria will be required henceforth to have passports and visas and Italians must have visas to enter Austria from Italy. Identity papers have sufficed until now.

Austrian officials in Vienna protested the border-tightening measure as unnecessary and "contrary to the spirit of European collaboration." Austrian Foreign Minister Bruno Kreisky said his government will police the dispute before the United Nations again unless Italy agrees on peaceful means to settle the issue.

Italy indicated that until Austria replies to its protest it will not carry on any more discussions with Vienna as requested by the U.N. General Assembly last fall.

Austria claims the South Tyrol, which it had to cede to Italy after World War I, is being Italianized

Hunt on for Slayer of 2 Officers

KREMMLING, Colo. (AP)—A hundred officers, some with sub-machineguns, stalked through the rugged northwestern Colorado mountains searching today for a fast-draw gunman accused of killing two officers and wounding two others.

State Patrol Lt. Hiram Short, 49, of Craig, Colo., and Under-sheriff John Clark, 68 of Eagle County, died Wednesday night from bullets fired by the lone-haired desperado.

Sheriff Chancy Van Pelt, 54, of Grand County, and Robert Hoover of Grand Junction, a State Game and Fish Department education officer, were hospitalized at Denver with serious bullet wounds.

The slayer, described as in his early 20s, was driving a car purchased July 3 at Sioux City, Iowa, by a man giving the name of Delmar Dean Spooner of Storm Lake, Iowa. Officers said Spooner left Storm Lake July 6.

Officers said they believed they trapped the gunman in a ravine near State Bridge, Colo., about 15 miles southwest of Kremmling near Piney Creek. The area, popular with fishermen, is about 130 miles northwest of Denver.

The gunman abandoned his car after a gun fight in which Clark was wounded in the jaw.

Some officers said the desperado may have been wounded before fleeing on foot into the mountain fastness.

Officers pieced together this sequence of events: Hoover, driving westward on U.S. Highway 40, stopped to assist a motorist whose car appeared to be stalled. Hoover became suspicious after the driver failed to produce adequate identification and radioed for the sheriff to take the state patrolman.

The three questioned the motorist for a few minutes and decided to take him to Kremmling for further examination. They started walking to Van Pelt's car when the motorist drew a pistol and fired rapidly at Short and Van Pelt.

After wounding them, the gun-roadside woods.

Chicks Cause Dispute by Officials

BELLEVIEW, Ark. (AP)—A dispute over a broiler house under construction resulted in Mayor E. E. Valentine walking out of a City Council meeting here Wednesday night.

The broiler house is being built by Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Walker, who started construction on the house about the time the city adopted an ordinance requiring a public hearing on applications to build such structures.

When the matter was brought before the council Wednesday night, Valentine commented the ordinance "wasn't worth the paper it is printed on" because it hadn't been read three times before being adopted.

Five of the six aldermen disagreed with Valentine, who adjourned the session, turned out the lights and left with his lone supporter, Alderman Johnnie Walker, a brother of the deputy.

With the lights turned back on, the remaining aldermen voted to require the deputy to comply with the ordinance.

A temporary restraining order has been issued by Chancellor Paul Williams preventing further construction on the building. A hearing on a lawsuit filed by Mrs. Virginia H. Ham of Little Rock is set for next Wednesday.

The ordinance carries a penalty of $25 for each day of violation with the mayor charged with enforcing it.

man fired on Hoover, who had rolled into a roadside pit in an effort to escape the shooting.

The gunman raced away in his car, driving through Kremmling and turning southward on a road toward Eagle County.

Sheriff Henry Knuth and his undersheriff, Clark, drove northward to intercept the fleeing man. When they attempted to stop the approaching car, the Iowa auto rammed into the officers' vehicle.

At the same time, a shot through the window struck Clark in the jaw. The gunman jumped from his car and ran into dense

Big Creek Project a Possibility

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Big Creek project in Arkansas, would receive $1,421,000 in federal funds under a watershed protection and flood prevention schedule presented to Congress by President Kennedy Wednesday.

Overall cost of the 19 projects in the 16 states and Puerto Rico was estimated at $45 million, with local sponsor groups and individual landowners to bear about $18 million of the cost.

It was the second group of small watershed projects proposed by Kennedy and the total is the largest submitted to congress in any two-month period since the authorization of the program in 1954.

Rider Policy to Remain Same

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Little Rock's policy toward any future "Freedom Riders" will be "to keep the peace by whatever means is required under the circumstances."

City Manager Ancil Douthitt laid down that formula Wednesday. He said this did not necessarily mean that other riders would be arrested, as were the first four to arrive in Little Rock Monday night.

If it should become necessary to disperse a gathering crowd, the police would do that, Douthitt said. Police Chief R. E. Glasscock said there was no attempt to scatter a crowd of 300 to 400 persons which collected at the bus station where the riders arrived Monday night.

Douthitt said reports to him indicated that the alternative then was to remove the riders from the station, which police did.

Police also got backing Wednesday from a newly-formed Civic

McCorkle-Langley Vows Exchanged
Miss Polly Ruth McCorkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie McCorkle of Hope, became the bride of Bobby Joe Langley, son of Mrs. E. H. Langley of Junction City and the late Mr. Langley, June 30 in the Central Baptist Church of Conway with Elder Elbert O'Steen of Warren officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

An arch entwined with greenery flanked by bridal baskets of gladiolus and greenery with a prie die in the center provided the setting for this ceremony. A program of pre-nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Billy Ray Langley of Conway, pianist, and J. E. Hughes of Caldwell, who sang "Take Thee, Dear" and "God Made You Mine" prior to the ceremony and "A Wedding Prayer" while the couple knelt.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long, lace sleeves which came to Lilly points over the hands. The flowing skirt was of Chantilly lace over satin and tulle. The scalloped Chantilly lace formed an

DOROTHY DIX

These Children Ask For It

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE
Dear Helen: You often say that no child should ever be whipped. I disagree. I am 15 and one of three daughters. Our parents whip us when we do wrong yet we love them very much and could not do without them. We, my sisters and I, believe that to spare the rod is to spoil the child. In a large city adjacent to our small town, there is a section where only Chinese live. A judge in this city states that he has never convicted a Chinese child because none are ever delinquent. He also states that the Chinese are very harsh with their children — R.

Dear R.: You and your sisters are the exception. I still can't believe, and never shall, that flogging is the way to discipline a child. Nor do I agree with the Judge's observations about the Chinese. True, there is little or no juvenile delinquency among them but the reason for this is their religion: respect for their elders. Confucianism worship ancestors and revere parents. Because of this relationship between parent and child is ever happy. My Chinese friends, and I have many, would be as horrified as I, at the thought of beating a child. The whipped animal is the wild animal. It obeys through fear not love. As a result it is correspondingly untrustworthy. And so it is with children. No child should ever be made afraid, either of its parents or of anyone else.

Dear Helen: What do you think of a neighbor who takes and never gives. For two years I have been hating my neighbor and her groceries to and from market. Often it was just for the buggyride, she being a gadder. Now that I don't have a car home and she does, the shoe's on the other foot. The two times I've asked her to drive me to the store she's put on a long face and said she likes to do her shopping alone. Should I be sorry I was ever a good neighbor? — L.B.

Dear L.B.: Whether or not your neighbor returns the favors you've shown her is immaterial. Sincere giving should come from the heart with no thought of recompense. You've done your good deed—let it go at that. Never regret doing a kindness. However, of one thing you can be sure, it will be returned, perhaps by a stranger, if not your ungrateful neighbor, for the law of compensation is ever at work.

Dear Helen: My twin and I would like to do a sister act in a night club or theater. But — and it's a big but, we live in a small town where the people, including our own family, think show business the primrose path to Hades. The turning point has come. Next fall marks our senior year in high school if we are to be anybody. We must start preparing ourselves now. Should we buck this opposition and, as you say, aim for the stars, or resign ourselves to the monotony of a small-town, humdrum respectable life? — Hopefuls

Dear Hopefuls: Be yourselves but also be realistic. What talent, if any, have you for singing, acting or performing in public? Psychologists define talent as 96 per cent perspiration and four per cent inspiration. It's the will to do that counts. Don't be influenced by the biased thinking of others. If you make good, the whole town will meet you with a brass band, all prejudice forgotten. And, speaking of hands, singing with the high-school band is a good way to start. Work out a routine, using a popular tune for your theme song, until practice perfect, then team up with the band. The first attempt may be pretty sour but, if you've got what it takes, nothing can discourage you. If you're identical twins, the going will be rougher for one will surely try to dominate the other.

Baptismal Service At Lonoke

Baptismal service will be held at the Lonoke Baptist Church Sunday, July 16, at 7 p.m. All candidates that joined the church during the Vacation Bible School are asked to prepare for this service. Rev. A. L. Scott, Pastor; Mrs. Alice Holbert, Reporter.

Park Activities

"What are the children around City Park doing?" seems to be the question of today.

Recreation Supervisor, Roscoe Smith says, "They are having fun, they are taking part in social recreation, they have the urge to play, and are mingling informally and enjoyably with other children of Hope and the surrounding area." You see, that's part of the American tradition.

Sometimes there are as many as eight hundred (800) persons at City Park, and no disturbances occur. That alone proves our ability to get along harmoniously.

Civic Association Makes Contribution To City Park

In the above picture, H. L. Washington, President of the Hope Civic Improvement Association, looks on as Mrs. E. L. Hicks, Secretary of the association, writes a check in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100.00) which was contributed to the City Park recreation program. The presentation was made to Roscoe Smith, Supervisor of Recreation on June 8, 1961.

The City Park Pony's tied Spring Hill, Louisiana July 12, 6 to 6.

The game was rained out in the bottom of the 7th inning with the Pony's coming to bat. The Pony's got all their runs in the 5th and 6th inning after catching on to the Spring Hill pitcher.

Scoring for the Pony's were Ezell Powell, George Smith III, Mack Dennis, Arthur Green with two runs and Shannon, the pitcher.

Couple Fleeces Aged Princess

GENOA, Italy (AP) - Police held a German baron and his Italian woman friend today on charges of keeping an aged princess a virtual prisoner in her luxurious home for nearly 10 years and fleecing her of more than $80,000.

The accused are Baron Waldemar von Hoyningen-Huene, 45, owner of a dental appliances firm in Genoa, and Luigiananetti, 31. Their victim was identified as widowed Princess Carolina Casarotto Borghese, 78.

The baron was charged with violating an Italian law against subjecting another person to one's will. He was also charged with stealing jewels belonging to the princess and embezzling $80,000. Luigia was charged with complicity.

case to pinpoint what it called a good response to the program.

The Washington state legislators trimmed $14.5 million from the sum requested by the department for the 1961-62 period. That left, in turn, a 10 per cent cut in payments to those who receive general and disability assistance and aid to dependent children. The reduction affects almost 60,000 persons.

Eight counties in Oregon required men on welfare rolls to cut brush along highways, prepare surplus food for distribution and clean up fairgrounds this summer.

Louis Ringuette, chairman of the Josephine County Welfare Commission, spoke of a small, elderly man who runs a chain saw in tree-and-brush clearing work. He said, "You'd think he was getting $5 an hour the way he keeps it going."

Five years ago Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) Ohio, began a program for retraining employable special clients. They catalogued relief rollers, gave them on-the-job training in county hospitals and other institutions and helped them get work. John J. Schaffer, county welfare director, said more than 1,400 persons have been put on payrolls. He reckoned the transfer cut the relief load by about $1.5 million.

Texas tightened up its aid to dependent children program with an appreciable saving. Assigning specialists to make more thorough investigations brought these results: a drop from 24,974 cases involving 79,957 children and $1,768,372 in June, 1959 to 19,632 cases involving 60,596 children and $1,171,914 in June 1961.

Louisiana enacted a law last year to cut off aid to dependent children to any mother who had an illegitimate child after she drew a welfare check. Action was made retroactive, and 22,500 of the youngsters were removed from the benefit lists.

But the law also provided that a mother could regain eligibility by proving her home was suitable. One way was by getting married legally. One way or another, all but 4,500 of the children have been restored to the rolls.

Florida also has whittled down its aid to dependent children load. Under a 1959 law assistance can be stopped when a family doesn't have a suitable home. The results: a review of 15,000 cases and many voluntary withdrawals.

Flat Salary for Man With Round Wife

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Should a man with a round wife put her on a flat salary?

The answer is a resounding yes except for one problem—what will you do with all the money she makes? Hide it in the corners? There are other problems, too.

Often housewives sigh and say they would like to be on a pay-as-you-do basis.

Often many a husband would also like to find those same girls on a pay-if-you-don't basis.

Would it work out any better, for instance:

You start by giving your wife a fair salary for running a neat house—cooking, cleaning, etc. a day, at 75 cents an hour, four days a week. That would be $3 a day or $21 a week.

Then, naturally, there would be a surcharge for the time she spent listening to her lord and master brag about his troubles in bringing home her and his bacon.

At the same rate of 75 cents an hour, it might break down to this: Three hours a day listening to husband praise himself seven days a week—$15.75.

Five hours a day listening to husband criticize his boss and pointing out the errors of that man's ways: At 75 cents an hour, $26.25.

Now if you add these reasonable recognitions of a wife's endeavor you get this summary financial picture:

For taking care of your household, listening to your self-praise and your denunciations of your employer, the dear girl has earned a welcome weekly total $63.

to a Soviet note proposing that separate peace treaties be signed with West Germany and Communist East Germany. Bonn replied that a peace treaty must be concluded with a legitimate German government freely elected by all the German people.

West Berlin continued calm as storm clouds gathered overhead. But the flight of refugees streamed into the "escape hatch" from Communist East Germany at a rate of more than 1,000 a day—the highest in eight years.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, visiting West Berlin to demonstrate the close links between the isolated city and West Germany, conferred with Mayor Willy Brandt and other city government officials.

In Paris, the United States, Britain and France consulted their allies in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on their replies to the Soviet note of June 4 threatening to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany this year. There was no indication when the replies would be delivered, but De Gaulle's speech and the West German note made clear the other allies would join in firm opposition to the Soviet attempt to remove the Western protection from West Berlin.

In Gettysburg, Pa., former President Eisenhower declared that a Western surrender to Khrushchev on Berlin would be far worse than the British-French surrender of the Czech Sudetenland to Hitler at Munich.

Eisenhower told Paul Martin of the Gannett News Service that he firmly believes the Soviets do not want an all-out war over Berlin or anything else but will use other methods to achieve their ends.

Another Strike at Beaver Dam

EUREKA SPRINGS, Ark. (A)

An operating engineers union local went on strike at the Beaver Dam construction project near here Tuesday. It is the second union strike.

Fort Smith went out several days ago. Tuesday pickets for Operating Engineers Local 382 of Little Rock appeared at the site with signs indicating support of the had carries strike.

Army Engineers said the project would be delayed by the strike. Engineers said the matter was between the contractor, T. L. James Construction Co. of Ruston, La., and the unions and that the engineers did not plan to take any role in the dispute.

expenditure, one yawn. Price of your time: 12 cents.

Debit: Time spent explaining to her why you'd rather spend the evening at home than squire her on the town: Two hours a night, 14 hours weekly. Total waste of breath, figuring any attempt at wife-explaining at $5 an hour, $70.

Debit: Luncheon money Demands and borrowings based on the idea that a wife with eyes that close together can't be financially trusted anyway: $3.50 weekly.

Well, now, there you are, You put a round wife on a flat salary of $63 a week and the first thing you find is, she is living at a $73.97 scale.

of Setauket, N.Y., one of two whites among the four jailed riders said, "If we are not allowed to do what we believe in we feel it is on the conscience of the public officials to do what they must."

The attorney for the four, Thad D. Williams of Little Rock, said the six-month sentences and $500 fines given them Wednesday would be appealed.

A fifth member of the group, along to act as an observer on the St. Louis to Little Rock leg of the trip was not arrested. She is Annie Lumpkin, 18, Negro, of St. Louis.

In jail with Raines are Mrs. Janet Reinholtz, 23, a white New York housewife; the Rev. B. Elton Cox, 30, of St. Louis, Negro field secretary for the Congress of Racial Equality; and Bliss Ann Malone, 23, Negro, a St. Louis teacher.

The four were arrested Monday night when they arrived at Little Rock's Midwest Trailways bus depot after a trip from St. Louis where the four originated. They planned to go to Shreveport and New Orleans, La., from here.

A crowd of 300 or 400 people was on hand to watch their arrival and police arrested the four under a 1959 state law which makes it a misdemeanor "to threaten a breach of the peace."

Miss Lumpkin, who did not enter the bus station, was taken into custody briefly then released. She said Wednesday that since the others had decided to go to jail she would return home but she did not know when.

At their hearing in Municipal Court Wednesday, Police Chief R. E. Glascock and two other officers testified the four were arrested because of a threat of violence from the crowd which gathered at the depot.

Judge Quinn Glover set maximum punishment of six months in jail and $500 fines but offered to suspend the sentences if the four would leave Arkansas and return to their homes.

After an hour-long conference among themselves and telephone calls to officials of the Congress of Racial Equality in St. Louis, they agreed to Glover's proposal and were freed from custody.

Then, later in the day, they decided against the proposition and Glover revoked the agreement and ordered them back to jail.

Raines said press reports indicated "we came here, got spanked and are going back home."

"We don't feel that way," he said.

Printing Contracts Are Completed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Secretary of State Nancy Hall said today that 66 controversial printing contracts had been decided on, but that she won't announce names until contracts are formally signed.

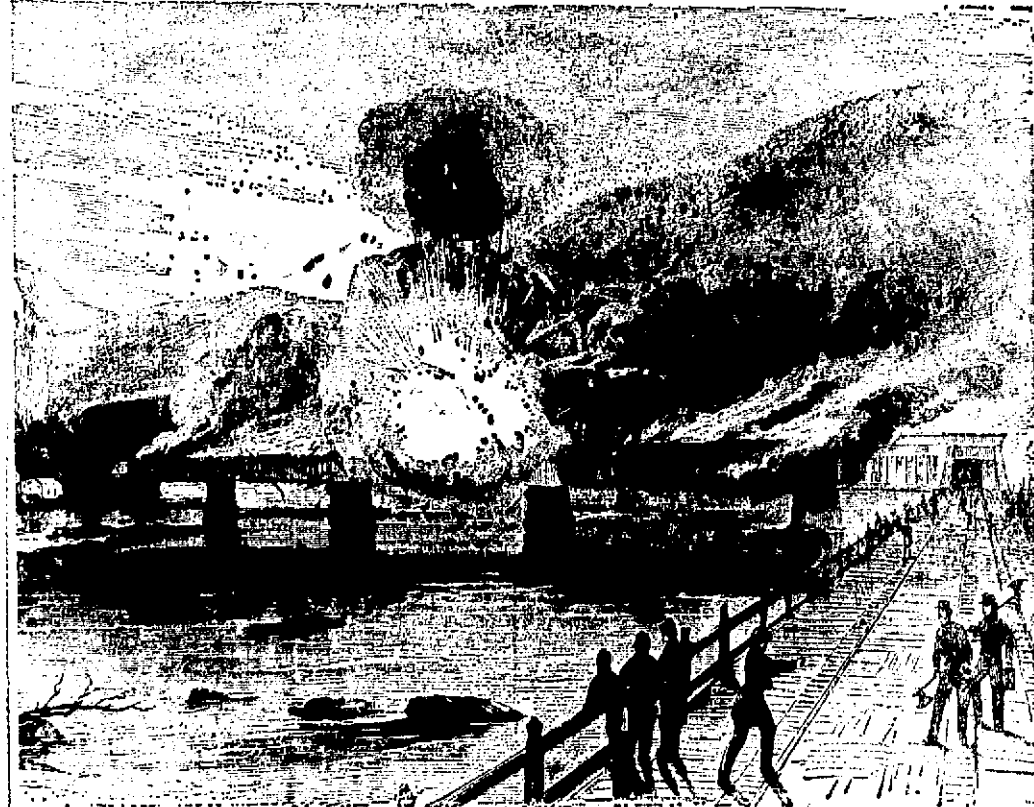

That probably won't be until next week.

Mrs. Hall has the signature of Gov. Orval E. Faubus, but needs those of State Auditor Jimmie Jones and Treasurer J. Vance Clayton. Jones is out of town and Clayton is in a hospital.

Some printers complained about the procedure used in the printing bids and Mrs. Hall set up a three-man committee to study bids and make contract awards.

CIVIL WAR ALBUM

Seesaw Record of Harpers Ferry

HARPERS FERRY, W.Va., at the confluence of the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers, changed hands several times during the Civil War. It had been the scene of the John Brown raid in 1859 and was first taken over by the Virginia militia for the Confederacy when the state seceded on April 19, 1861. A federal garrison of 45 men set fire to the arsenal there and withdrew. On May 23, it came under the command of Confederate Brig. Gen. Joseph E. Johnston who considered the place unimportant. When word was received that Union forces were approaching, the Confederates made plans to withdraw on June 15. Major Leagues Pennant Races Starts Again

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The major league pennant races interrupted by a wild wind in San Francisco, pick up again today with the All-Star game heroes back in the pack in the National League running and the All-Star game goals on the threshold of first place in the American.

The New York Yankees, whose sluggers, Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, contributed just one single between them in seven trips as the NL beat the AL 5-3 in 10 innings at San Francisco Tuesday in the windswept All-Star game, play at Chicago tonight and could regain the lead from idle, first-place Detroit.

New York slipped one percentage point behind the Tigers Sunday before the majors started the three-day All-Star game break.

In the National, the Cincinnati Reds take a five-game home stand in the opener of a four-game series with the seventh-place Chicago Cubs at Cincinnati. The second-place Los Angeles Dodgers, with pitcher Don Drysdale sidelined by suspension and catcher Norm Sherry sidelined by injury, start a three-game set at home against last-place Philadelphia.

Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh drove in the winning run in the All-Star game and Willie Mays of San Francisco, who batted in the tying run and scored the clincher, go back to battling against each other as the third-place Pirates play the Giants this afternoon at Candlestick Park, San Francisco's Cave of the Winds.

The other NL game sends Milwaukee to St. Louis tonight.

In the American, it's Baltimore at Boston, Minnesota at Cleveland and Kansas City at Washington.

The Yankees, 3-2 over the White Sox this season, send Bill Stafford (7-4) against Chicago and Early Wynn (7-1), the right-handed veteran who will be shooting for his 22nd career win and his 6th in a row. New York figures to have first baseman Bill Skowron back and expect to be without Mantle, who injured his wrist while batting in the All-Star game. Skowron injured his back once again in pregame practice on Sunday.

Travs Defeat Nashville by 8-4 Score

By VERNON BUTLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

About a month ago the Nashville Vols were making threatening gestures toward the Southern Association leaders but today they're trying frantically to escape a plunge into the cellar.

With only eight victories in their last 30 games, the Vols are perched perilously close to the dungeon, only half a game ahead of the puncheon Mobile Bears. Both tail-enders lost Wednesday. Atlanta shaded Mobile 2-1 in an afternoon game witnessed by only 190 paying customers in Atlanta. Little Rock whipped Nashville 8-4 before an evening turnout of 393 at Nashville.

Shreveport had the "big" crowd, 553 hardy fans who saw pace setting Chattanooga wallop the Sports 9-2 and expand its lead over idle Birmingham to one game. Wet grounds at Birmingham idled the Barnos and the visiting Macon Peaches.

The other NL game sends Milwaukee to St. Louis tonight.

In the American, it's Baltimore at Boston, Minnesota at Cleveland and Kansas City at Washington.

The Yankees, 3-2 over the White Sox this season, send Bill Stafford (7-4) against Chicago and Early Wynn (7-1), the right-handed veteran who will be shooting for his 22nd career win and his 6th in a row. Search for New Cures Continues

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The drug industry will spend more money than ever this year in its search for new cures for human ailments—and this in spite of some ills of its own.

The industry's troubles include: a chorus of complaints from the ailing who contend their prescription drugs cost too much, official inquiries into the industry's practices both of pricing and promotion, and an average drop in profits of 3.6 per cent.

The industry stoutly denies it overcharges, citing as one of its rising costs the expensive research it carries on with the ever-present risk of finding nothing profitable.

It also defends its promotion tactics as necessary in one of the most highly competitive of industries.

And naturally the individual companies hope that the decline in profits will be reversed. In many cases, if they are, it will be because of some new formula found and developed by their expensive research crews.

The Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association reports today that a survey of its member firms shows a record $227 million budgeted for research and development in 1961 of drugs for humans, plus $5.8 million for veterinary drug products.

The previous record of $206.5 million was invested last year in human drug research and $5.4 million for animals. Together this came to 7.7 per cent of total 1960 domestic and foreign sales.

Six firms reported foreign research and development activities, with $2.1 million budgeted for that this year, or about 1 per cent of all their research allocations.

The association notes that the $227-million expenditure this year will be a 276 per cent increase over the $60 million the same companies spent in 1951. In the decade the industry has found and profitably developed many prescription drugs once called miracles and now regarded as commonplace.

This year's expanding research activity is attributed by Dr. Austin Smith, association president, "to the highly competitive search for breakthrough discoveries to combat many common ailments—notably cancer and cardiovascular disease."

More Riders Plan Tours of South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four "Freedom Riders" who earlier agreed to stop their tour of the South in exchange for suspended fines and jail sentences changed their minds and returned to jail at Little Rock, Ark.

One of the four, the Rev. John C. Raines, 27, of Setauket, N.Y., said Wednesday night the group discussed the matter and decided that to leave would be giving up something they believed was right.

Raines said he assumed the group would begin serving six-month sentences.

Municipal Judge Quinn Glover convicted the group on breach of peace charges Wednesday but

All-Star Grid Players Report to Coach Otto

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The 1961 College All-Star football team—56 strong—reports to Head Coach Otto Graham today to open a three-week training period.

The collegians, who wound up their school competition last fall, will oppose the champions of the National Football League, the Philadelphia Eagles, in the annual All-Star game Aug. 4 in Soldier Field.

Graham's assistant coaches and the players register at Northwestern University today. The squad will hold one-day practice sessions Friday and Saturday and start twice-a-day session at Dwyer Stadium Monday.

This is Graham's fourth year as head coach of the All-Stars. The former Northwestern and Cleveland Brown quarterback now is head football coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy.

Graham's assistants are Don Doll, formerly of Southern California; Dick Stanfel, San Francisco; John Sauer, U.S. Military Academy; Mike Scurry, ex-Cleveland Browns player and former coach at Washington State; and Dante Lavelli, Cleveland Browns.

Looking for beef as well as speed and ability, coaches selected 25 players who weigh from 230 to 285.

Ends include Mike Ditka, Pittsburgh; Earl Faison, Indiana; Martin McKeever, Southern California; and El Kimbrough, Northwestern.

Among the tackles are Joe Rugens, 245, Illinois; Ken Rice, 245, Auburn; Bill Shaw, 250 Georgia Tech; and Bob Lilly 255, Texas Christian.

Guards include: Jack Novak 225, Miami of Florida; Myron Polites, 228, Notre Dame; Jim Tyrer, 265, Ohio State and Bruce Tarbox 235, Syracuse.

Center prospects include Frank Visted Navy; Mike Pyle, Yale; and Greg Larson, Minnesota.

Backfield prospects include: Tom Matte, Ohio State quarterback; Joe Bellino, Navy; Bob Crespi and George Blair, Mississippi; Tom Mason, Tulane; and George Flemming, University of Washington.

Philadelphia starts drills at Hershey, Pa., Friday.

He would suspend their six-month terms and $500 fines if they would go home.

The four arrested Monday night when they stopped at Little Rock en route from St. Louis to Shreveport and New Orleans, La., at first agreed to leave but later decided to remain in jail.

Meanwhile at New Orleans Judge John Minor Wisdom of the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals granted a convicted Freedom Rider the right to take her case to his court. It was the first of the Freedom Rider cases to reach this judicial level.

Wisdom signed a certificate of probable cause allowing Elizabeth Wyckoff, 46, New York free lance writer, to appeal to the federal appeals court.

Miss Wyckoff was arrested June 2 at the Trailways bus terminal in Jackson, Miss., for breach of the peace and convicted on June 5, Jackson City Judge James Spencer sentenced her to a $200 fine and a suspended 60-day jail term. She refused to pay the fine and went to the state prison to work it out at the rate of $3 per day.

At Jackson, Spencer convicted two Jackson Negroes for breach of the peace in the city's first lunch counter sit-in. He fined Lavahn Brown, 16, and Jimmie Travis, 18, $200 and sentenced them to four months in jail.

Fryers, Ham, Beef Feature of Markets

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Midsummer meat menus are mixed at supermarkets this week—a few fryers, a little lamb, a bit of beef and some smoked ham.

Fryers are featured in the East and Midwest, with prices as low as 25 cents a pound, while leg of lamb is at bargain levels in New England, New York, the Midwest and Far West. Lamb chops and a 20-cent a pound combination of lamb chops and stew meat also are available in scattered areas.

Beef is about evenly divided between such bargain cuts as chuck roast and steak and the more expensive rib roasts and round steak. Ham sales are mostly in the East.

Sirloin steak is higher in a few places, but the real items to watch out for this week are pork chops and eggs. The former are up 4 to 10 cents a pound.

Eggs, up for the third straight week, are 2 to 4 cents a dozen higher.

More and more fresh fruit and vegetables keep coming to market.

Best buys among vegetables are beets, broccoli, carrots, celery, cucumbers, endive escarole, onions, radishes, miscellaneous leafy cooking greens, lettuce, parsley, peppers, potatoes and fava beans (king-sized snap beans).

Good buys are the regular size snap beans, cabbage, corn, eggplant, okra, watercress and peas.

Lightning Strikes, Kills Fisherman

Minutes later Lindeburg was dead, struck by lightning.

The friend, Lee J. Scott, who related the conversation later, said that he had agreed with Lindeburg and had suggested they go home. But Lindeburg decided to stay.

Scott said Lindeburg was fishing Wednesday with a steel pole and was barefooted. Scott wore rubber hip boots. As Scott started to leave the beach the bolt struck.

"All of a sudden I was knocked down and it felt as if my hair was being pulled out," he said. "When I got up I wasn't hurt, just shaken."

What Time Is Best to Be Young?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Some say this is the best time to be young. Some say there never was a worse time.

But life is a mosaic of many memories, and any youngster of today by coming along so late by the nature of things will have missed a lot of what went before.

Many a man or woman middle-aged or older feels a bit sorry for young folks who can't remember when—

You could buy a white shirt for a dollar bill.

No child dared to call its father or mother "stupid" or "silly."

Anybody who went up in an airplane and came down safely got his picture in the newspapers.

A child's biggest thrill was to be lifted to the back of one of the big gray horses in the local fire station.

Everyone over 60 foretold the weather by his rheumatism. (Only the very rich could afford doctors who called it arthritis.)

Dogs slept outdoors at night—and there wasn't one in the whole broad land whose owner had bought it a mink blanket.

When a fellow found it hard to read the small print in the mail order catalogue he went to the dime store pawed through its display of spectacles—and bought the pair he could see with best.

If you lived beyond your means the neighbors chuckled and said "over the hill to the poorhouse."

The proudest kid in the block was the one with the most warts. Nobody had heard of government relief checks. Families were expected to look after their own poor relatives.

Big babies were thought healthier than small babies. Any man who fathered one that weighed less than 8½ pounds at birth apologized to his friends.

Fat people were thought to be happier—and likely to live longer—than thin people.

If you had a second helping of dinner the beaming hostess took it as a personal compliment to her cooking. She had no idea you were eating to camouflage a hidden neurosis.

Anybody who could imitate bird calls or play a musical saw had an artistic future in vaudeville.

More people worried about constipation than cancer.

In baseball a home run was really something to see. (Franklin F. Baker led the American League in homers from 1911 to 1914; only 39.)

It was widely predicted that if real income tax the nation would rise up in rebellion.

There was always a hitching post handy to tie up the horse and buggy—and not a parking meter between Maine and California.

No doubt, those were the good old days indeed.

Tabasco Goes To A Cookout

Good food tastes even better out of doors, and broiled steak and roast corn on the cob are two favorites for a summertime cookout. Tabasco, the spicy liquid red pepper seasoning, adds piquancy when used in a steak marinade and a butter sauce to spread on the grilled meat and hot cooked corn.

Porterhouse, sirloin, rib or shell steaks are good for outdoor broiling, and the flavor and texture of the less expensive cuts such as round and chuck steaks will be improved if they're marinated beforehand. Allow ¾ to 1 pound of steak per person.

Steak Marinade

½ cup salad oil 1½ teaspoon thyme
½ cup lime or lemon juice 1 bay leaf
½ cup red wine vinegar ½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dry mustard 1 teaspoon Tabasco
1 medium onion, chopped

Blend salad oil and lime or lemon juice in shallow bowl; stir in remaining ingredients. Put steak in marinade. Let stand 5 hours or overnight; turn once. Yield: Enough for 1 4-pound steak.

Never cook steak directly over flames—start your fire about an hour before you plan to cook the meat and let the charcoal burn down to a bed of glowing coals. Place the steak on a lightly greased rack about 3 inches from the heat, allowing about 5 minutes per side if you like it rare. To test for doneness, make a short cut near the bone with a sharp knife.

A seasoned butter sauce is delicious spread over the cooked steak and brushed on the corn.

Tabasco Butter

½ cup (1 stick) butter ½ teaspoon Tabasco
2 tablespoons lime or lemon juice

Melt butter; stir in other ingredients. Brush over broiled steak and hot corn on the cob. Yield: Enough for 2 4-pound steaks or 1 dozen ears of corn.

SUSPENSE SETTE

A Short Short Story

THE FEVER OF REASON

By LESTER ARNO

Prof. Thomas Woodruff Gray acknowledged the applause with a smile.

"Thank you, Friends of Youth. For that is how I think of you." The Professor held up his hand as though to quell any dissenters in the audience.

"I know you will be Friends of Youth after I have finished my little talk because although it is listed on your programs as 'What Makes a Juvenile Delinquent?' I am confident you will permit me to change the title.

"I shall call my speech 'The Fever of Reason' from the quotation of La Rochefoucauld, which I am sure you all recall. 'Youth is a continual intoxication; it is the fever of reason.'"

Prof. Thomas Woodruff Gray was pleased as he noted the ripple of assent from his audience. People appreciate a bit of erudition, he thought.

"My friends," he continued, "the juvenile delinquent was not sprung, full grown, in our times. The word 'mobster' stemming from 'mob' had its origin in Roman times when 'mobile vulgus' was used to refer to the 'fickle crowd' by the elders decrying the juveniles who were rowdies at the Circus Maximus.

"English history records that the first day of May in 1517 was named 'Evil May Day' because on that day serious rioting in London was created by the apprentices who fell upon the French residents of that city.

"London has had a long and interesting history with its exuberant young. A group of overstimulated young men swarmed its streets in the 18th century. They were called 'Mohocks,' spelled M-O-H-O-C-K-S, after our American Indian tribe, the Mohawks. One of the practices of this group was to roll persons down Snow Hill in a tub; another was to overturn coaches on rubbish heaps."

Prof. Thomas Woodruff Gray waited until the laughter subsided, then, with a chuckle he added, "So you see, my friends, even our staid English cousins have had shall we say, their own over-enthusiastic young men.

"As a matter of fact, it may amuse you to know that a reporter, writing in the 'Spectator,' a leading news source of that day, described the Mohocks' deprecations as follows:

'You sent your Mohocks next abroad. With razors armed and knives:

Who on night-walkers made in-road, And scared our maids and wives.'

Again there was a stir of appreciation in the audience and again the Professor beamed his appreciation.

"Yes, good Friends of Youth," he continued, "Some of the very words we use today were born of youthful spirits. 'Blackguard' we take from a proclamation issued by the Lord Steward's office in May of 1663 when a group of young men calling themselves 'The Black Guard' invaded his majesty's stables. From Ireland comes the word 'hooligan' from the lovely city of San Francisco the word "hoodlum."

"Let us judge our youth, but let us not judge harshly. Let us remember our own youth, let us remember the words of La Rochefoucauld . . . 'Youth is a continual intoxication; it is the fever of reason.'"

Eichmann Admit Sending Jews to Camp

By THOMAS A. REEDY

JERUSALEM (AP)—Adolf Eichmann admitted under oath today he shipped out some Jews to construction camps in the full knowledge they were going straight to their death.

Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner forced the former Gestapo colonel to acknowledge that some deportations were to work camps but others were labeled for immediate extermination.

The defendant declared, however, these decisions were reached by Heinrich Himmler, Reinhard Heydrich and Ernest Kaltenbrunner, the top Gestapo officials.

Aside from transports to labor camps, the attorney general declared, "there were other kinds—straight to death."

"I do not intend to deny this," Eichmann replied. "I did not give the orders."

Presiding Judge Misha Landau stared at Eichmann, interrupted the cross-examination, and said solemnly: "Would you like to explain?"

Eichmann leaped to his feet. He eagerly told the court the directives were issued by his superiors who chose "the numbers and a certain place of destination."

"I knew part of what was going on at the time," he said. "I knew certain numbers of Jews were going to extermination. I do not wish to take shelter behind lies. But I could not order, nor could I order cessation of such actions. I was a tool."

As a tool, Eichmann said he had to centralize the paper work and organize the transportation.

Eichmann swore that six SS officers lied when they signed statements naming him as the chief executor in the Nazi slaughter of the Jews.

Meeting of Six

ROME (AP)—The government chiefs of the six Common Market nations have agreed to meet in Bonn, Germany, July 18 to discuss steps toward political integration of the economic group.

Foreign ministers of the six—France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—set the date for the summit and worked out an agenda Monday at a day-long meeting in the Italian Foreign Ministry.

finished his talk, the applause was deafening.

Prof. Thomas Woodruff Gray turned off the ignition key in his car, got out, closed his garage door and started for his house.

He smiled as he remembered the applause, the handshakes, the agreement that had followed his lecture.

He was so filled with the happiness of the moment that he hardly felt the forearm that wrapped itself around his throat, the blow from the short piece of gas pipe, the kick from the brass tipped bat that crushed his skull.

It was too late, too, for the Professor to smother the alcohol on the breaths of the three youths who ripped away at his clothes.

THE END

Layer Your Pie With Flavor

Three flavors combine with harmony in a fruited chiffon pie. For this summer triple-decker dessert, there's a fluffy lemon chiffon base made with unflavored gelatine, eggs, and fresh lemon juice. Only 6 minutes of cooking time are required.

Part of the mixture is blended with cream cheese for the bottom layer of the pie. A seasonal, bountiful fruit . . . strawberries, peaches, bananas or blueberries . . . form the second layer. The remaining lemon chiffon goes on as the crowning layer. The chiffon mixture can be served in a baked pastry crust or in sherbet glasses.

Fruited Chiffon Pie

1 envelope unflavored gelatine 1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
¾ cup sugar, divided 1 8-ounce package cream cheese
¼ teaspoon salt
4 eggs 1 9-inch baked pastry shell
¾ cup lemon juice ½ pint strawberries
¾ cup water

Mix together gelatine, ¼ cup of the sugar and salt in top of double boiler. Combine slightly beaten egg yolks, lemon juice and water; add to gelatine mixture. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until gelatine dissolves and mixture thickens, about 6 minutes. Remove from heat; add lemon rind. Add ½ cup of the gelatine mixture to cream cheese; blend until smooth. Turn into prepared pie shell; chill until almost firm. Hull berries; reserve several for garnish. Slice remaining berries over cream cheese. Unbake egg whites. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Gradually add remaining ¼ cup sugar and beat until very stiff. Fold into gelatine mixture. Turn on top of strawberries; chill until firm. To serve, garnish with remaining strawberries.

Yield: 10-inch pie.
NOTE: If desired, 1 cup blueberries, sliced bananas or peaches may be substituted for strawberries.

This Farm Produces Rich Return

BY BILL HARRISON

PETALUMA, Calif. (AP)—They feed the cows while bread; they pay the farm hands nothing.

Need fathered these practices and the strange farm itself — the simple, stark need of empty stomachs aching for food. But the farm produces far more than food. Its richest return is in human spirit.

The farm hands, most of them, had taken an economic beating in San Francisco, 50 miles to the south. In comeback tries they'd met only closed doors, averted eyes and "sorry, no."

The reasons the men hit bottom? The bottle sometimes. Plain bad luck in many cases. They hadn't been in California long enough to qualify for official aid.

Father Alfred Boedeker, Franciscan priest who founded and directs St. Anthony's, says the farm grew from the needs of the dining room.

When a woman asked him to find someone to run a 10-acre farm five years ago, an inspiration hit Father Alfred. Why not buy the farm and raise food for the dining room?

"You've been a farmer?" the surprised woman asked. Father Alfred, born in San Francisco 57 years ago, has been a scholar — his studies included two years in Rome — a teacher, a pastor, never a farmer. But neither had he run a dining room before he was assigned to the St. Boniface parish in 1949.

So the farm was bought. "For a song," Father Alfred says without giving figures. It proved too small and its clay soil too poor to help much.

But Father Alfred still felt the idea was sound and the Franciscans bought a 65-acre ranch nearby "for another song, compared to its worth."

At the dining room, men often ask to go to the farm.

They go if there's an opening. They stay a day, a month, a year or much longer. To go or to stay is entirely their decision, and a ride back to the city is available almost daily on the farm supply truck.

The men get three meals a day, a bed, tobacco and personal necessities such as soap and razor blades. Like the dining room, the farm has no fees, no questions, no sermons. And there is no salary for chores.

The seller of the larger farm, John Messer, stayed on at a salary to supervise the growing dairy herd, now 230 head including calves. There's also a paid foreman on each farm.

The cows, mostly Holsteins, are fed bread instead of bran mash. Why? Stale loaves hauled from city bakeries cost $24 a ton; bran runs about $74. The cows thrive and their production stays up.

Father Alfred says already 500 men have gone from the farms to outside jobs.

Folks Returned His Currency

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Wind wrecked John McKinley's house last Wednesday night. Also blown away was $150 currency which McKinley had hidden between the ceiling and a furnace pipe. He had hoped to use the money for additional construction on the house.

The McKinleys found about $165 of the money in the wreckage. At least five other persons returned various sums as they were found.

All but $100 has been recovered. McKinley, a car clerk for a railway, said Monday: "We really appreciate the honesty of those who have brought the money to us."

Byrd Ticket Sweeps All Virginia

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The Byrd organization ticket, led by Albert S. Harrison Jr. for governor, scored a sweep in Tuesday's state Democratic primary in Virginia.

The durable conservative faction of Sen. Harry F. Byrd that has dominated the state's political scene for more than 30 years convincingly turned back the most determined challenge it has faced in modern times.

Harrison, 54, who resigned the office of attorney general to run for the top spot, defeated A. E. S. Stephens, 60, the present lieutenant governor, who broke with the Byrd forces to strike out on his own.

Nominated with Harrison were his running mates, Mills E. Godwin Jr. for lieutenant governor and Robert Y. Burton for attorney general. Both are now state senators. They won by slightly smaller margins, over State Sen. Armistead L. Boothe and T. Munford Boyd, a law professor at the University of Virginia, respectively.

Criminal Charge Is Proper Way

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An attorney general opinion to Lee County Sheriff Courtney Langston of Marianna Tuesday said proper course of action against an automobile graveyard too near a paved highway is through a criminal charge. A 1955 state law prohibits automobile graveyards within 1,000 feet of a paved highway and provides a maximum fine of $100 for each day of violation.

Protest Rally

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—A thousand Negroes and whites staged a protest rally Monday night against a government ban on the South African colored convention in Cape Town last weekend.

Taking part in the demonstration were the Roman Catholic bishop of Cape Town, the Most Rev. Owen McCann, and a former chief justice, H. A. Fagan.

More than 200 delegates to the banned convention meanwhile met in a farm shed 45 miles from Cape Town and issued a call to all South Africans to get together "in the near future" and hold a non-racial national convention.

Wants GM to Foot All Health Bill

By DWIGHT PICKIN

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union demanded today that General Motors Corp. take over the full cost of health care insurance for 310,000 UAW members in GM plants.

The union also asked that the company place 34,000 retired hourly workers and their dependents under the hospital-surgical-medical program. Workers pay the full cost of medical care insurance upon retirement. The company and employees share the cost on a 50-50 basis during active employment.

Similar demands to expand the health care programs will be made by the UAW on Ford, Chrysler and American Motors in current labor contract negotiations.

In negotiations at Ford Tuesday the union bargaining team demanded a higher level of pension benefits coupled with optional early retirement at age 60.

It also proposed a lump-sum payment upon retirement and pension provisions for workers' widows.

In resuming negotiations at Chrysler Tuesday the union demanded changes in the contract to prevent supervisory personnel from taking over the jobs of hourly workers.

James B. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, showed up Tuesday for the resumption of talks with General Motors on a new contract to cover 24,000 employees represented by the IUE in GM appliance plants. The talks had been in recess since the union's opening presentation June 29.

Scientists Study Variety of Things

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A look at love and marriage in the United States, a bloodhound on the moon and a new daylight camera for planets.

LOVE AND MARRIAGE

Last year more American men married at age 21 than at any other age, and more women married at age 18, says the Population Reference Bureau.

If you sliced the 1960 marriage out of the corner grocery store. They advised the state's congressional delegation of their opinions. The lawmakers in turn asked the Post Office Department to cancel its call for bids on the proposed new building.

statistics down the middle, you'd find the median age for grooms was 22.6 years, for brides 20.3 years.

These figures show, said the bureau, that young folks getting married for the first time are younger and closer in age in the United States than in any comparable nation.

LUNAR BLOODHOUND

Now they've built a little black box that will act like a bloodhound on the moon—sniffing out the gases that emanate from the moon's soil for traces of life and chemicals.

The device—which will be shot to the moon in 1963 as part of the U.S. Surveyor space craft—will be able to break down small samples of the moon's soil and report back what chemicals it finds.

It will look for certain carbon chemicals associated with life — chemicals which have already been found in meteorites, and which may have been the essential life beginnings on earth.

DAY SHIFT

Scientists can now take pictures of planets, rockets and missiles in broad daylight — pictures that once could only be taken at night.

The pictures, which can be transmitted directly to indoor screens, can be viewed continuously — thanks to the Facet-Eye camera, developed at the Air Force Missile Development Center, Holloman Air Force Base, N.M.

The camera has already viewed Venus and Jupiter — and may make practical the 24-hour observation by visual means of satellites and rockets in space. It uses 19 long-barreled telescopes each focused on a single point in the sky — and superimposes one image on another.

It thus obtains the magnification of one large telescope, but gets clear images in daylight by reducing the amount of stray light.

Even In Summer!

Yes, even in the hottest weather it's best to serve one warm or hot food at each meal. This practice contributes to good digestion and a feeling of well being. For example, if a chilled fruit salad and iced beverage are planned for the mid-day meal, some type of hot food would provide the needed temperature balance. Home-made muffins are always good and peanut butter ones are different and especially tempting.

Peanut Butter Muffins

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup margarine
- 1/2 cup chunk-style peanut butter
- 1 cup milk

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together into mixing bowl. Make well in center. Beat eggs until foamy. Melt margarine and peanut butter in small sauce pan. Add to eggs and stir in milk. Pour into well in dry ingredients and stir, lightly and quickly, just until flour mixture is moistened. Batter should be lumpy. Pour into greased muffin pans, filling cups 3/4 full. Bake in 425° F. (hot) oven, 25 minutes. Serve warm. Makes 10 to 12 medium-sized muffins.

Fruit Salad Dressings

Try one of these dressings to turn a combination of fruits in season into a very special salad.

PEANUT MAYONNAISE: Combine 2 tablespoons chunk-style peanut butter and 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind. Gradually blend in 1 cup of real mayonnaise. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

FLUFFY ORANGE MAYONNAISE: Blend 1/4 cup real mayonnaise with 1/4 cup orange juice, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind and 1/4 teaspoon confectioner's sugar. Beat 1 egg white until soft peaks form when beater is raised. Fold in mayonnaise mixture. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

CURRENT-NUT MAYONNAISE: Beat 1/4 cup currant jelly with rotary beater until smooth. Gradually blend in 1 cup of real mayonnaise. Mix in 3 tablespoons chopped nuts. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

This Farm Produces Rich Return

BY BILL HARRISON

PETALUMA, Calif. (AP)—They feed the cows white bread; they pay the farm hands nothing.

Need fathered these practices and the strange farm itself — the simple, stark need of empty stomachs aching for food. But the farm produces far more than food. Its richest return is in human spirit.

The farm hands, most of them, had taken an economic beating in San Francisco, 30 miles to the south. In comeback tries they'd met only closed doors, averted eyes and "sorry, no."

The reasons the men hit bottom? The bottle sometimes. Plain bad luck in many cases. They hadn't been in California long enough to qualify for official aid.

Father Alfred Boeddeker, Franciscan priest who founded and directs St. Anthony's, says the farm grew from the needs of the dining room.

When a woman asked him to find someone to run a 10-acre farm five years ago, an inspiration hit Father Alfred. Why not buy the farm and raise food for the dining room?

"You've been a farmer?" the surprised woman asked. Father Alfred, born in San Francisco 57 years ago, has been a scholar — his studies included two years in Rome — a teacher, a pastor, never a farmer. But neither had he run a dining room before he was assigned to the St. Boniface parish in 1949.

So the farm was bought. "For a song," Father Alfred says without giving figures. It proved too small and its clay soil too poor to help much.

But Father Alfred still felt the idea was sound and the Franciscans bought a 65-acre ranch nearby "for another song, compared to its worth."

At the dining room, men often ask to go to the farm.

They go if there's an opening. They stay a day, a month, a year or much longer. To go or to stay is entirely their decision, and a ride back to the city is available almost daily on the farm supply truck.

The men get three meals a day, a bed, tobacco and personal necessities such as soap and razor blades. Like the dining room, the farm has no fees, no questions, no sermons. And there is no salary for chores.

The seller of the larger farm, John Messer, stayed on at a salary to supervise the growing dairy herd, now 230 head including calves. There's also a paid foreman on each farm.

The cows, mostly Holsteins, are fed bread instead of bran mash. Why? Stale loaves hauled from city bakeries cost $24 a ton; bran runs about $74. The cows thrive and their production stays up.

Father Alfred says already 500 men have gone from the farms to outside jobs.

Folks Returned His Currency

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Wind wrecked John McKinley's house last Wednesday night. Also blown away was $850 currency which McKinley had hidden between the ceiling and a furnace pipe. He had hoped to use the money for additional construction on the house.

The McKinleys found about $165 of the money in the wreckage. At least five other persons returned various sums as they were found. All but $100 has been recovered.

McKinley, a car clerk for a railway, said Monday: "We really appreciate the honesty of those who have brought the money to us."

Byrd Ticket Sweeps All Virginia

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The Byrd organization ticket, led by Albert S. Harrison Jr. for governor, scored a sweep in Tuesday's state Democratic primary in Virginia.

The durable conservative faction of Sen. Harry F. Byrd that has dominated the state's political scene for more than 30 years convincingly turned back the most determined challenge it has faced in modern times.

Harrison, 54, who resigned the office of attorney general to run for the top spot, defeated A. E. S. Stephens, 60, the present lieutenant governor, who broke with the Byrd forces to strike out on his own.

Nominated with Harrison were his running mates, Mills E. Godwin Jr. for lieutenant governor and Robert Y. Burton for attorney general. Both are now state senators. They won by slightly smaller margins, over State Sen. Armistead L. Boothe and T. Munford Boyd, a law professor at the University of Virginia, respectively.

Criminal Charge Is Proper Way

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An attorney general opinion to Lee County Sheriff Courtney Langston of Marianna Tuesday said proper course of action against an automobile graveyard too near a paved highway is through a criminal charge. A 1955 state law prohibits automobile graveyards within 1,000 feet of a paved highway and provides a maximum fine of $100 for each day of violation.

Protest Rally

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — A thousand Negroes and whites staged a protest rally Monday night against a government ban on the South African colored convention in Cape Town last weekend.

Taking part in the demonstration were the Roman Catholic bishop of Cape Town, the Most Rev. Owen McCann, and a former chief justice, H. A. Fagan.

More than 200 delegates to the banned convention meanwhile met in a farm shed 45 miles from Cape Town and issued a call to all South Africans to get together "in the near future" and hold a non-racial national convention.

Wants GM to Foot All Health Bill

By DWIGHT PIPKIN

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union demanded today that General Motors Corp. take over the full cost of health care insurance for 310,000 UAW members in GM plants.

The union also asked that the company place 34,000 retired hourly workers and their dependents under the hospital-surgical-medical program. Workers pay the full cost of medical care insurance upon retirement. The company and employees share the cost on a 50-50 basis during active employment.

Similar demands to expand the health care programs will be made by the UAW on Ford,

He Fought Over That Bottle

LOS ANGELES (AP) — They've grounded high-flying Joseph Newkirk who brandished a knife after an airline stewardess relieved him of his whisky flask.

He was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail Monday for drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Newkirk, 60, a janitor was taken off a Chicago to Los Angeles with a deadly weapon.

Scientists Study Variety of Things

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A look at love and marriage in the United States, a bloodhound on the moon and a new daylight camera for planets.

LOVE AND MARRIAGE Last year more American men married at age 21 than at any other age, and more women married at age 18, says the Population Reference Bureau.

If you sliced the 1960 marriage

out of the corner grocery store.

They advised the state's congressional delegation of their opinions. The lawmakers in turn asked the Post Office Department to cancel its call for bids on the proposed new building.

statistics down the middle, you'd find the median age for grooms was 22.8 years, for brides 20.3 years.

These figures show, said the bureau, that young folks getting married for the first time are younger and closer in age in the United States than in any comparable nation.

LUNAR BLOODHOUND

Now they've built a little black box that will act like a bloodhound on the moon—sniffing out the gases that emanate from the moon's soil for traces of life and chemicals.

The device—which will be shot to the moon in 1963 as part of the U.S. Surveyor space craft—will be able to break down small samples of the moon's soil and report back what chemicals it finds.

It will look for certain carbon chemicals associated with life — chemicals which have already been found in meteorites, and which may have been the essential life beginnings on earth.

DAY SHIFT

Scientists can now take pictures of planets, rockets and missiles in broad daylight — pictures that once could only be taken at night. The pictures, which can be transmitted directly to indoor screens, can be viewed continuously — thanks to the Facet-Eye camera, developed at the Air Force Missile Development Center, Holloman Air Force Base, N.M.

The camera has already viewed Venus and Jupiter — and may make practical the 24-hour observation by visual means of satellites and rockets in space. It uses 19 long-barreled telescopes each focused on a single point in the sky — and superimposes one image on another.

It thus obtains the magnification of one large telescope, but gets clear images in daylight by reducing the amount of stray light.

Even In Summer!

Yes, even in the hottest weather it's best to serve one warm or hot food at each meal. This practice contributes to good digestion and a feeling of well being. For example, if a chilled fruit salad and iced beverage are planned for the mid-day meal, some type of hot bread would provide the needed temperature balance. Homemade muffins are always good and peanut butter ones are different and especially tempting.

Peanut Butter Muffins
2 cups sifted flour 1/4 cup margarine
2 tablespoons sugar 1/4 cup chunk-style peanut butter
1 tablespoon baking powder 1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt 2 eggs

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together into mixing bowl. Make well in center. Beat eggs until foamy. Melt margarine and peanut butter in small sauce pan. Add to eggs and stir in milk. Pour into well in dry ingredients and stir, lightly and quickly, just until flour mixture is moistened. Batter should be lumpy. Pour into greased muffin pans, filling cups 3/4 full. Bake in 425°F. (hot) oven, 25 minutes. Serve warm. Makes 10 to 12 medium-sized muffins.

Fruit Salad Dressings
Try one of these dressings to turn a combination of fruits in season into a very special salad.

PEANUT MAYONNAISE: Combine 2 tablespoons chunk-style peanut butter and 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind. Gradually blend in 1 cup of real mayonnaise. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

FLUFFY ORANGE MAYONNAISE: Blend 1/4 cup real mayonnaise with 1/4 cup orange juice, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind and 1 1/2 teaspoons confectioner's sugar. Beat 1 egg white until soft peaks form when beater is raised. Fold in mayonnaise mixture. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

CURRENT-NUT MAYONNAISE: Beat 1/4 cup currant jelly with rotary beater until smooth. Gradually blend in 1 cup of real mayonnaise. Mix in 3 tablespoons chopped nuts. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Americans Don't Like to Create Scene

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Americans, at least nine out of 10 of them, have a genuine horror of "creating a scene."

A "scene," in the sense it is used here, is synonymous with a "fus." Or a "spectacle." As in: don't make a fus, or you'll create a scene and make a spectacle of yourself.

This nearly national trait, no doubt begun by the Pilgrim fathers to keep the children from causing talk and trouble among the Indians, is considered a quality of "niceness" and "gentility." It should, I suppose, be enthusiastically endorsed.

However, this fear of a show-down in public has been carried too far in our society — to the point where the poor polite American is being put at the mercy of a few impolite Americans, as well as being forced to accept mediocre products and services.

How often, for example, does a sweet and kindly matron enter a millinery shop and try on hats in front of a salesgirl whose haughtiness or surliness literally frightens the lady into buying a model she dislikes — rather than risk being publicly insulted with innuendos or grim silences?

Men in any kind of apparel store are even easier to terrify out of making justified complaints. Wherever did they get that term "a hull in a china shop?" Most men, in most shops, are rather like dogs in muzzles — bowed, cowed and incapable of barking. "Nice" gentlemen, as depicted by the scene-avoiders, seem to feel obligated to buy anything they touch, must less put on their backs.

In restaurants, the majority of American males and females are truly taken advantage of, because of their dread of "speaking up" and possibly creating unpleasantness.

If they order roast beef well-done and it comes to the table rare, what do they do? Perhaps mother will sulk quietly. "This isn't the way I ordered it." Women are by nature the fighters in the family, since the preservation of the home and its purse is their self-appointed crusade. But father will blush and act as if he hadn't heard; and the waiter will scowl and act the same.

But most Americans, of both sexes, won't say a word about the food they receive at a restaurant, unless they receive an order that is outrageously incorrect — as in the case of being served scrambled eggs when they ordered stragout.

It's reasonably safe to say that nice Americans are the most easy-going, and easy-to-take-in, people

Says Public Will Pay for Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and his party leaders in Congress bore down on national defense and foreign aid in an hour and a half conference today.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., predicted that the American people will pay whatever is necessary in defense costs to meet what he called the increase in the Soviet Union's "attacking budget."

The Senate Democratic leader, Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, agreed with that. And he said he believes that more support is swinging behind Kennedy's $4.8-billion foreign aid program as a result of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's saber rattling.

Rayburn said that Kennedy wants the people to know that Khrushchev has "increased his defense budget, his attacking budget by 30 per cent." He added that "Kennedy has been criticized for raising his defense budget only 5 per cent."

What is going to grow out of this situation, Rayburn said, we don't know.

"But whatever it takes," he said, "I think the American people are willing to pay for the defense of this country."

He said that Kennedy did not indicate that he was ready at this point to ask for any increase in defense funds.

The President has ordered the Pentagon to review the whole defense budget in the light of Khrushchev's statements and the critical situation in Berlin and Germany.

Wants UN to Take Up Berlin Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the Berlin crisis may be thrust into the United Nations.

Rusk replying to questions after a speech at the National Press Club Monday declined to estimate the chances of a war breaking out over Berlin.

But he said the issue will be around for months and "must be soberly dealt with."

Dam in Korea Leaves 114 Dead

SEOUL (AP) — The South Korean Red Cross said today 114 persons were killed and 13 are missing when a dam burst at the small community of Namwon, 150 miles south of Seoul.

A Red Cross spokesman said the death toll could go higher. He reported 220 houses were washed away and 203 destroyed in the disaster caused by several days of torrential rains.

The Red Cross said it was rushing food and clothing to the stricken community of 20,000.

Two villages besides Namwon were reported flooded when waters from the Irbak Myun reservoir burst through an irrigation dam.

1kc, Leaders Air Everything

GETTYSBURG Pa. (AP)—The leaders discussed "everything from Berlin to backyard spending" with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana Senate and House minority leaders flew in for a brief visit Monday at Eisenhower's invitation.

After the meeting at Eisenhower's farm Halleck said "We just had a good discussion of world and domestic affairs. We talked about everything from Berlin to backyard spending."

Eisenhower had no comment about the nature of the visit.

in the world.

They need to be approved of, even by people they cannot themselves approve. They are afraid that it would be bad breeding to send food back for the chef's reappraisal; they fear that if they walk out on a cocky sales technique, people will stare at them.

What a shame they don't realize that those stares might be made of pure admiration.

Everything — looks — black department: Gary Player, Masters golf champion, says, "If I were to choose my color I'd definitely wear black on the course. Black attracts the heat and that makes my muscles warm and supple. You can wind and unwind better, and swing with a lot more rhythm and force."

And Miss Joann Blair writes: "My budget is shattered I couldn't care less."

I'm the owner (at last!) of a basic black dress. That all-purpose garment that fashion decrees

Is one of life's greatest necessities.

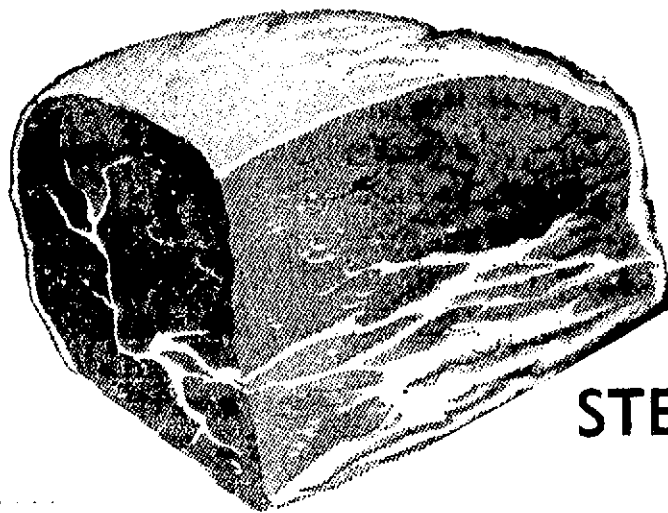

Now I'm ready for dating or falling off logs.

Khrushchev Has Some Doublethink

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

(WASHINGTON AP)—You can have things both ways with doublethink.

What's no longer needed is very necessary, the old is new, and what goes down is up.

Premier Khrushchev has been having some doublethink.

He's keeping the troops he said he was getting rid of. The military aircraft he said was finished and the money he said he'd save is being spent, and then some.

money being spent, et al. shrd s and out of date is very new. And the money he said he'd save is money being spent, and then some.

Almost 18 months ago he wanted to be accepted as a peace-lover. President Eisenhower and other Western leaders had agreed to meet him at the summit. And once again Eisenhower had just called for disarmament.

On Jan. 14, 1960, Khrushchev told the Soviet parliament: The Soviet Union was so strong it could wipe any attacker off the face of the earth. (Eisenhower had said the same thing about the United States eight days before.)

But Khrushchev outdid Eisenhower.

He said Russia was so strong it had decided to chop 1,200,000 men from its armed forces and rely upon an awesome array of nuclear weapons and rocketry, including some "armaments never known to man."

He said Russia had a "fantastic" weapon in the "hatching" stage.

But if the world doubted Russia could stay strong while dropping over a million men from the armed forces, Khrushchev had an explanation. He said the manpower reduction not only wouldn't reduce Soviet fire-power but would actually increase it "many, many times."

He said "the truth is that atomic, nuclear and rocket weapons created by us set up every condition to permit us to cut our armed forces" without harm to defense capacity.

And—he said Russia would start cutting its armed forces at once.

All that was almost 18 months ago. Things didn't pan out. Khrushchev broke up the summit meeting. And now he's telling the West to get out of West Berlin. To show he means business, he's talking tough.

On July 8, 1961, in Moscow he said: Because of world conditions the Soviets would stop the reduction of its armed forces (although in 1960 he said Russia would be stronger without the 1,200,000 men).

On Jan. 14, 1960, he said Soviet power had developed so much in the field of rocketry and nuclear weapons that bombing planes and naval fleets are becoming obsolete.

He said "military aviation is almost entirely being replaced with rockets. Now we have sharply cut down and apparently will

Won't Probe Death of Jeff Chandler

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Screen Actors Guild says it won't investigate the death of actor Jeff Chandler. Such an inquiry it said Monday would serve "no useful purpose."

Chandler, 42, died June 17 in a Culver City hospital after four operations. The initial surgery was for a slipped spinal disc.

Actors and actresses had petitioned the Guild's board of directors to look into circumstances surrounding Chandler's death.

The directors pledged cooperation with the State Bureau of Hospitals which recently completed an investigation at the hospital. Attorney Edward Rose, special administrator of the Chandler estate is also making an inquiry.

The hospitals board has not released the results of its inquiry.

Would Repeal Extra

Racing Season

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A newly-formed Little Rock ministerial association Monday asked Gov. Orval E. Faubus to work for the repeal of a law extending the racing season at Hot Springs.

The Metropolitan Little Rock Association of Free Ministers asked Faubus to include a reduce further or even entirely discontinue the production of bombers and other obsolete equipment.

But on July 9, 1961, at Moscow the Soviets put on a tremendous display of military airpower with new supersonic jets, fighters and bombers.

And the chief Soviet air marshal, Konstantin A. Vershinin, writing in Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, said rockets had taken over many tasks but that "the air force continues to play a great role."

On Jan. 14, 1960, Khrushchev, mightily pleased with the good news he was giving the Russians about the size of their armed forces, added some good news for their economy, too, by announcing the manpower cut would save 17 million rubles a year.

But on July 8, 1961, he said Russia is increasing its military spending by about 3½ billion rubles a year.

How To Pack For Vacation

Vinyl plastic lingerie cases organize laundry aids, cosmetics. Travel wardrobes that arrive by jet are the fashion this summer. This calls for careful planning and shopping for easy care fabrics, refresher toiletries and some hand-laundry aids that will keep you and your clothes clean and well groomed all the way. One light weight scuff-resistant plastic suitcase will hold a variety of changes for sightseeing, dining, and fun in the sun.

Here's a quick check list to help you pack:

Choose one color scheme for clothes and stick to it. This will allow interchange of separates and accessories for more changes.

Pack shoes in polyethylene plastic bags so that they will not soil dresses. Place shoes and cosmetic case on bottom layer of suitcase. Fold dresses last in layers, spreading skirt full length of suitcase.

Keep your laundry aids, including stretchable clothes line and plastic clips, in one vinyl zippered envelope. Transfer dry chlorine bleach to a plastic bottle and label it. Pack this along with liquid or powdered detergent, also in plastic container, for overnight hand-bowl laundry that need be no more than soaking, rinsing, and drip-drying in hotel room or cottage.

Make sure your cosmetic envelope includes a deodorant soap that will start you out clean, talcum and first aid cream that also contain bacteriostats, shampoo, and cologne or toilet water.

Have fun.

Retired AP Official Dies at 66

IRVINGTON-ON-HUDSON, N.Y. (AP)—Lloyd Stratton, 66, who retired May 1 as corporate secretary of The Associated Press after an AP career of 41 years, was found dead at his home today.

His death was attributed to coronary thrombosis. He had been in ill health with a variety of ailments in recent years, including a heart attack which led to a mild stroke.

Stratton had just returned to his home here from Jamaica, British West Indies, where he was preparing a new home on four shorefront acres. While in Jamaica he was treated for a gastrointestinal disorder.

Stratton held a number of positions with The AP through the years. But he was perhaps best known for his work as assistant general manager who directed expansion of AP services to 3,600 newspapers and broadcasting stations in 80 foreign countries after World War II.

He also played a leading role in the introduction of such AP departures as bylines, livelier writing, features, cartoons, pictures, wirephoto radio service and background and interpretive writing.

Stratton was a native of Kansas who began his newspaper career as a carrier boy on the Winfield Courier in 1909. He rose through various positions to become editor before joining The AP at Kansas City in 1920.

With The AP he served in bureaus at Oklahoma City, Lincoln and Omaha, Neb., Chicago and New York.

After transfer to New York in 1925, he held successively the posts of feature editor, news editor, executive assistant, assistant general manager and corporate secretary.

He also was managing director of The Associated Press, Ltd., in London, and secretary of Press Association, Inc., Wide World Photos La Prensa Asociada, New York City News Association, and Associated Press of Canada.

Stratton covered the Loeb-Leo trial in Chicago in the early 1920s and during World War II he was the only wire service reporter in Tehran when the secret Roosevelt-Stalin-Church conference was held there.

In 1954 he received from Columbia University a Maria Moors Cabot gold medal for his part in advancing friendship in the Americas.

Stratton was married twice. He and his first wife, now Mrs. Andre Dupree of Paris, France, had two children. They are a daughter, Mrs. William A. Smith of Pineville, Pa., and a son, Kent, of 2049 Santa Maria Ave. Castro Valley, Calif.

Stratton was separated from his second wife, the former Olga Brooks, of Tenafly, N. J. They had a daughter, Gae, who resides with her mother.

plea for repeal in the agenda of the special legislative session next month.

Faubus Names the Same Race Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today reconstituted his 11-man Racing Commission, renaming seven old members.

New appointees were W. H. Ingram of West Memphis, Max McManey of Marmaduke, Jerry Steele of Nashville and Joe Smerker of Little Rock.

They replace Jeff Rowland of Paragould, J. E. Wright and Joe Schmelzer of Little Rock and O. W. Fletcher of Paragould.

Reappointed were Dr. Porter Rogers of Searcy, John Tynson of Springdale, Joe McKennon of Dumas, Jim Bush of Helena, Carl N. Hope of North Little Rock, Bert Dickey Sr. of Earle and Dr. Edwin Dunnaway of Conway.

Faubus said he would recommend that the commission re-name Dunnaway as chairman.

The law permits Faubus to change membership of the Racing Commission at will.

Cotton Crop 2 Weeks Late

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas cotton crop is about two weeks late and only fair in most counties the federal-state Crop Reporting Service said today.

The agency's weekly crop bulletin said cotton is in better shape in the southeast section and in Jackson County than elsewhere.

Soybeans are reported in good condition and growing rapidly. Rice is in fine condition.

More rain is needed, however, in most areas of the state.

The south Arkansas tomato harvest is past its peak. Picking of the Elberta peach crop is expected to be in full swing by mid-month.

Heart Research Fund to U of A

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Heart Association has presented four grants totaling $2,700 to the University of Arkansas Medical Center for research work. One for $15,000 goes to Dr. John Pierce for cardiological research. It will finance his 15th straight year at the center. The other four also were on association grants.

Diamond Found at Murfreesboro

MURFREESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Linda Salm, 9, of Bartonville, Ill., found a 3.27 carat diamond at the nearby Crater of Diamonds Tuesday.

Howard Millar who operates the crater as a tourist attraction, reported the find which he estimated to be worth $500.

Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Salm, and her family stopped at the crater on the way home from an Oklahoma vacation.

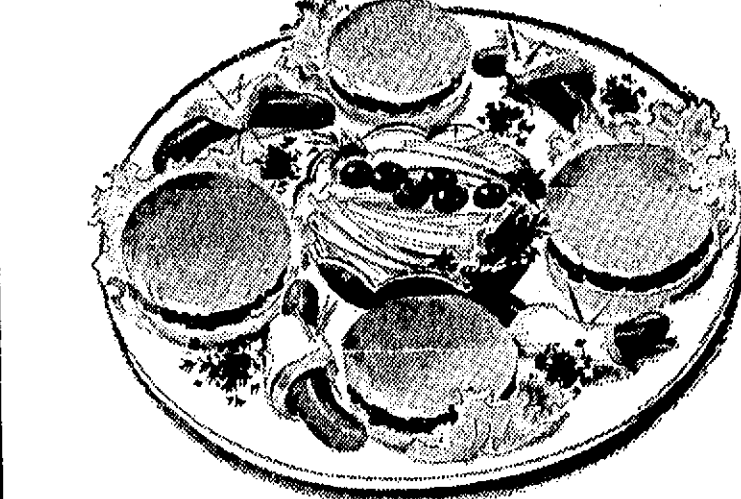

Millar said Linda did not know she had found a diamond. She brought the stone into the crater office in a sack with some pebbles and crystals she had picked up.

The crater is located at the site of the only diamond mine in North America. Commercial operations at the mine were unsuccessful and were suspended years ago.

Fried Shrimp Dinner Comes To Table

The dinner bell does double duty tonight as it gathers the family around the table and also announces the debut of the new frozen prepared fried shrimp dinner. Yes, out of the ocean depths comes a shrimp dinner (7½ ounces) you'll be proud to serve at any time... to anyone.

Pick up a shrimp. Isn't that good? Of course it is since the best shrimp available have been cleaned, cut butterfry-style, coated with an enriched breading, and quickly deep fried to retain juices. Dip one into the tangy and spicy tomato cocktail sauce specially developed to complement the shrimps' delicate flavor. Enjoy a generous portion of French fries with the shrimp. Golden brown when they come from the oven you'll find them crisp on the outside, tender inside. Peas... a favorite American vegetable... are here in abundance and adding to their fresh-from-the-garden flavor is rich creamery butter.

Temperature required for this number "12" dinner is 450°F, or very hot. Fold back the foil over the potatoes, slide the container into the oven, and in 20 minutes sit down to a perfect shrimp dinner.

A flavorful dessert to top off this fine meal is lemon chiffon pie... made from your own recipe or a mix... cradled in a cookie or cracker crumb crust. To make it picture pretty, garnish with whipped cream and thin lemon or orange slices.
